Boy, they sure were not wrong when they said August is the hottest month. Here at Tarpon Shores, we have been experiencing 100+ temperatures almost every day. The hot weather has really taken its toll on our lawns. As of this writing, we are still down to three wells for providing irrigation.

In accordance with the City of Tarpon Springs requirements the Park has revised the irrigation schedule to watering one day per week. The new schedule is printed elsewhere in this newsletter. Please look at the updated schedule and adjust your irrigation clocks accordingly. We appreciate your cooperation.

One of the convenient payment options offered by RPM for making your monthly maintenance fee payment is what we refer to as the "ACH" program which stands for Automatic Clearing House. By opting to use this method of payment, the monthly maintenance fee is deducted from your designated account on the 3rd of each month. No checks to write and no wondering whether or not the mail has delivered your payment in a timely manner to ensure that it arrives by the 10th of the month to avoid late fees and interest charges.

Although this payment method is optional, it is highly recommended. Elsewhere in this newsletter you will find the ACH form. If you would like to take advantage of this service, please complete the form and either email it to autodebit@resourcepropertymgmt.com or mail it directly to Tarpon Shores ROA c/o Resource Property Management, 7300 Park Street, Seminole, Florida 33777. Be sure to include a void check with the form.

BAKED APPLES FILLED WITH SAUSAGE

Ingredients

1 pound bulk sausage
6 large tart baking apples
2 tablespoons brown sugar
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1/4 cup chopped figs
brown sugar, ground cinnamon, grated lemon rind,
or chopped figs

Instructions

Preheat the oven to 375 degrees F. Brown the sausage in a large skillet.

Wash the apples and cut a slice from the tops. Scoop out the flesh, leaving shells 1/2 inch thick.

Cut the flesh from the cores and chop it. Add the chopped apple, brown sugar, cinnamon, lemon rind, and figs to the sausage and mix well.

Fill the apple shells with the mixture.

Sprinkle the tops with brown sugar, cinnamon, grated lemon rind, or chopped figs.

Place in a baking dish, cover, and bake until tender, about 40 minutes. Serve with hot biscuits and a green salad.

Thank you for your service, dear friend :)

He was getting old and paunchy
And his hair was falling fast,
And he sat around the Legion,
Telling stories of the past.

Of a war that he once fought in
And the deeds that he had done,
In his exploits with his buddies;
They were heroes, every one.

And 'tho sometimes to his neighbors
His tales became a joke,
All his buddies listened quietly
For they knew where of he spoke.

But we'll hear his tales no longer,
For ol' Joe has passed away,
And the world's a little poorer
For a Veteran died today.

He won't be mourned by many,
Just his children and his wife.
For he lived an ordinary,
Very quiet sort of life.

He held a job and raised a family,
Going quietly on his way;
And the world won't note his passing,
'Tho a Veteran died today.

When politicians leave this earth,
Their bodies lie in state,
While thousands note their passing,
And proclaim that they were great.

Papers tell of their life stories
From the time that they were young,
But the passing of a Veteran
Goes unnoticed, and unsung.

Is the greatest contribution
To the welfare of our land,
Some jerk who breaks his promise
And cons his fellow man?

Or the ordinary fellow
Who in times of war and strife,
Goes off to serve his country
And offers up his life?

The politician's stipend
And the style in which he lives,
Are often disproportionate,
To the service that he gives.

While the ordinary Veteran,
Who offered up his all,
Is paid off with a medal
And perhaps a pension, small.

It is not the politicians
With their compromise and ploys,
Who won for us the freedom
That our country now enjoys.

Should you find yourself in danger,
With your enemies at hand,
Would you really want some cop-out,
With his ever-waffling stand?

Or would you want a Veteran
His home, his country, his kin,
Just a common Veteran,
Who would fight until the end.

He was just a common Veteran,
And his ranks are growing thin,
But his presence should remind us
We may need his likes again.

For when countries are in conflict,
We find the Veteran's part,
Is to clean up all the troubles
That the politicians start.

If we cannot do him honor
While he's here to hear the praise,
Then at least let's give him homage
At the ending of his days.

Perhaps just a simple headline
In the paper that might say:
"OUR COUNTRY IS IN MOURNING, A VETERAN DIED TODAY."

FLORIDA ANCHOR AND BARRIER COMPANY

Congratulations!

Many men and women go out weekly and play golf. Sun, rain, they will play until sundown. The perfect game is to shoot par. Since only the pros can do that, some may shoot 1 or 2 under par. Par means when you tee off the ball it takes that many strokes to get the ball into the hole (flag). Many get close but that's the challenge to keep trying.

Well, that happened to our resident, Dave Naymick. Getting a hole in one is one chance in a million. This was accomplished at the Tarpon Springs golf course on August 13. It was witnessed by Bruce Gonyo and Steve Laundree. At #4 hole with the 6 iron in hand Dave teed off, the ball took flight, did its magic and landed in the cup. I can't imagine the look on his face. But this hole in one wasn't his first but his third. Dave must have been a pro in his previous life. When he returns to that course, he can look at the wall with his name on the plaque that will show his accomplishment.

His proud wife Joyce says, "Sometimes we think of giving up the game but then realize the game doesn't give up on us". Great job, Dave. Keep trying for your Fourth hole in one.

Tips on Giving to Charity

from the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services

www.freshfromflorida.com

All charities soliciting within the state of Florida, excluding religious, educational and governmental entities, are required to register and file financial information with the department. To check whether or not a charitable organization is properly registered and to find out how that organization spends your donation, contact our consumer hotline at 1-800-HELP-FLA (435-7352) from within Florida, (850) 410-3800 calling from outside of Florida, or you can visit our online Gift Givers' Guide.

Consumers are often asked to donate to charities – whether it's at a grocery store, on the phone or by mail. Donating hard earned money to a worthy cause can be very fulfilling. Be sure to keep these helpful hints in mind when donating to a charity:

- Charities and organizations know they must ask for money to receive money. Choose which ones you wish to support and contribute as often and generously as you can afford.

- Don't judge a charity solely on an impressive sounding name. Many organizations have names similar to well-known charities and organizations. Know who is asking you for money.

- Be wary of emotional appeals, and be suspicious of organizations with only vague plans for dispensing the funds.

- Ask the charity or organization why it is asking for donations. What purpose will be served? Ask questions and do not donate until you get satisfactory answers.

- Some solicitors use pressure tactics, and may even offer to send a "runner" to pick up your money. Reputable charities and organizations are just as happy to receive your gift tomorrow as today.

- Florida law gives the prospective donor the right to request and receive a copy of a charity's financial report before donating. ASK FOR IT.

- NEVER GIVE CASH. Contribute by check and make it out to the organization.

- Remember, you are not required to contribute to enter a sweepstakes. Donating money does not enhance your chance of winning.

- Not all organizations soliciting in the name of benevolence are true charities eligible to receive tax-deductible contributions. If this is important to you, ask about the organization's federal and state eligibility for receiving tax deductible donations. Typically, such donations fall under Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3).

- Some "sweepstakes" are done in the name of charity. If you enter a "charity sweepstakes," read the rules carefully or your entry may be disqualified. Check the odds. "Guaranteed winners" often receive prizes worth less than the price of a postage stamp.

- Gifts to donors may be an incentive, but they add to fundraising costs. You can donate directly to an organization and forego the gifts. The organization will then have a larger percentage of the contribution to use for its programs.

- Be conscious of groups or individuals who solicit by telephone, mail and door-to-door. Other groups to be wary of are ones who solicit on street corners. While they ask for charitable contributions, little is known about their charity or charitable purpose.

- Be aware that many telephone appeals for funds are made by paid solicitors, not volunteers. The solicitors often work for a for-profit firm hired by the organization. Telemarketing is expensive and may entail substantial fundraising costs.

- Some organizations have 900 phone numbers. When you call the number, the cost of the call is automatically billed to your phone. Before dialing, make sure you wish to donate the price of the call (it may be expensive) to that particular cause.

- Charities must spend money to raise money and they must pay fair salary to their employees. Most cannot function on volunteer help alone. Every organization will have some administrative and fundraising costs.

- Often times the elderly are taken advantage of because of their vulnerability. Elderly consumers are encouraged to discuss charitable giving with a trusted family member or friend.

Visit our online Gift Giver's Guide at www.800helpfla.com. From there you can search for specific charities financial and registration information. You can also call our consumer hotline at 1-800-HELP-FLA (435-7352) from within Florida, (850) 410-3800 calling from outside of Florida, and a consumer specialist will be happy to assist you.

Ultimately, it is your money and your contribution. MAKE IT COUNT.

LOOKED UNDER YOUR MOBILE HOME LATELY?

To our valued customers;

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

*Wishing you good health and safety,
The Florida Anchor & Barrier Team*
